THE MUSIC OF MARY LOU WILLIAMS

Adam Fairhall and Johnny Hunter, stalwarts of Manchester's creative music scene, have established a piano and drums duo to explore early jazz forms through an experimental lens. The piano/drums format is perfectly suited to this, being a favoured format in both Harlem stride and free music.

This latest project puts together a programme of the music of Mary Lou Williams, a hugely influential figure who lived and played through the entire history of jazz, from ragtime to avant-garde. She wrote and arranged for Duke Ellington and taught Thelonious Monk, Charlie Parker and Miles Davis. Her restless and inquisitive spirit is lovingly channelled by this duo.

RÍOGHNACH CONNOLLY & HONEYFEET

Ríoghnach Connolly & Honeyfeet move with ease and confidence between swampy jazz, raucous brass, fractured funk, blues balladry, and gorgeous folkloric textures. Connolly's powerhouse vocals lead the charge, blending mischief, protest and vulnerability into something fiercely human and utterly live.

We're so glad to present Honeyfeet's signature blend of protest soul, twisted folk, deep groove and joyful abandon in Morecambe following their tour of Europe and North America.

Ríoghnach has won the RTÉ Radio 1 Folk Award for Best Folk Singer and BBC Radio 2's Folk Singer of the Year.

YOUNG PERSON'S SOCIAL PRESCRIBING

If you would like more information, or to refer a young person, please email us: youngpersonssp@gmail.com

BURSARY PLACES
