WEST END WINTER LANTERN FESTIVAL

Saturday 5 December
From 4pm

Free Donations welcome

Start your festive season by joining this magical and memorable community celebration in Morecambe's West End. Everyone's invited to join the procession as it weaves through the streets, featuring lanterns created by local people, and led by Baybeat Streetband.

Start the evening in the warmth of More Music, with a gig showcasing the music made over the autumn. Then join the parade, which will culminate in a special performance outside the building, in collaboration with our friends from Cacophany Arkestra.

LANTERN-MAKING WORKSHOPS

Join for a day of lantern-making with our experienced facilitators, Anna Read and Anni Tracy. This year lantern designs will take inspiration from our collaboration with Cacophany Arkestra. Expect crows, acorns and mighty oaks, on beautiful willow and paper lanterns. Book online for this session to create your own lantern to carry in the procession. Suitable for the whole family!

£5 MM participants, LA3

The two first met as teenagers playing traditional music. The connection, they say, was immediate. The duo Spafford Campbell began playing live in 2018, prompting double takes with their delicacy, dynamism and seemingly telepathic exchanges, with the startling intimacy of musical conversations nurtured in improv-led writing sessions.

Their latest album Tomorrow Held is a visionary body of eight largely instrumental tracks that hold space, resolve into mystery, that fold in elements of jazz, post-rock and chamber classical music while raiding the folk music toolbox.
